

Exam and Revision Review

Which was your most successful exam? What percentage did you get?
Which was your least successful exam? What percentage did you get?
Did any results surprise you? If so which ones?
Had you covered the right topics in revision?
How much revision had you done in the week before the exams?
How much revision had you done before that week?
Were there any techniques you found particularly helpful in revision?
Was there anything you tried in revision that you think was a waste of time?
Is there any work you need to look at again from this year, before next year's exams? If so, how will you do that?
What might you do next time to make your revision more efficient and/or effective?
In the exams did you understand what the questions were asking and how to present your answers?

Did you manage your time in the exams successfully (did you run out of time or finish early)?
